The London Honors program offers a unique opportunity for first quarter freshmen in the Honors program. Students will be in one of four class sections and take an autumn quarter class focusing on London's culture and history. The class is co-taught by a faculty and staff member. The London portion of the program will include visits to St. Paul's Cathedral, Tower of London, the Globe Theater, the British Museum, Westminster Abbey, in addition to two days out of London (Stonehenge, Bath, Cambridge, others). Students will also have the opportunity to go to a theatre performance.

Location

London, England. London is a major world capital offering some of the world's finest museums, theatre, concerts, and the arts. Students will be housed in the Bayswater/Paddington area of London.

Courses and Credit

Student will take a seminar that meets every Wednesday evening from 6:30 - 8:30 p.m. during autumn quarter 2009. The class is an introduction to British life and culture. There are individual lectures on specific topics about Britain (history, art, the education system, theatre, and more), class discussions, direct contact with British life and culture in London, and assignments that include a journal, presentation, and paper. Once accepted to the program, students will have 5 hours of IS 697 added to their Autumn 2009 schedule. This credit will be turned into 5 hours of H296 Pro Seminar with a grade for successful completion of the course requirements and short-term program in London.
