

“Persepolis,” an Oscar-nominated French film based on the graphic novel and memoir of author Marjane Satrapi, depicts the life of a young girl growing up in Iran during the Islamic Revolution.

(All Global Engagement Film Series screenings are free for students with a valid BuckID. The first 50 students to arrive will receive free popcorn and soda. For updates on our film series, visit osu.edu/GlobalEngagement.)

Showing at
October 22, 7:00 pm
Gateway Film Center
850 North High Street,
Columbus, Ohio 43201

The Office of International Affairs is continuing its collaboration with the Gateway Film Center by hosting an international film series which offers a monthly international film for students to view for free!

October's screening will be French film "Persepolis" Based on an autobiographical graphic novel by Marjane Satrapi, the film tells the coming-of-age story of a young Iranian girl during the Islamic Revolution. The film is free to students with a BuckID. The films are open to the public at regular admission price.

October's film will be Wednesday, October 22 at 7 p.m. at the Gateway Film Center. Each film in the series is shown at 7 p.m. on the fourth Wednesday of the month. The first 50 students to arrive will receive free popcorn and soda.

In addition to the film, Marjane Satrapi, author and co-director of "Persepolis," will be speaking at the Columbus College of Art & Design on Tuesday, October 21 at 6:30 p.m. This program is free and open to the public. For more information about this event, visit www.ccad.edu. Contact Renée Bishai, bishai.1@osu.edu, with questions.