The Office of International Affairs, the Graduate School and the Undergraduate Fellowship Office have combined their efforts to plan a week full of events acknowledging past Fulbright and Fulbright-Hays recipients; hosting workshops, information sessions and open houses; and informing faculty, undergraduate and graduate students about the opportunities available through the Fulbright and Fulbright-Hays programs. All faculty, staff and students are welcome to participate in any of the Fulbright Week sessions held during the week of April 17 - 21, 2017. The complete schedule for Fulbright Week 2017 is posted below.

April 17, 2017

Fulbright and Fulbright-Hays Doctoral Dissertation Research Abroad (DDRA): What is the Difference?
10 - 11 a.m., 100 Enarson Classroom Building

A presentation by Joanna Kukielka-Blaser, Program Director of Fulbright-Hays and Theresa Hazelwood, Director of Fellowship Services, for graduate students interested in applying for Fulbright or Fulbright-Hays DDRA grants. Learn how the two grants differ and are similar. Please register for the 4/17 session and for more information, please contact Joanna Kukielka-Blaser.

Fulbright-Hays Doctoral Dissertation Research Abroad (DDRA) One-On-One
Advising for Graduate Students
11 a.m. - 12 p.m., 100 Enarson Classroom Building

Graduate students can schedule an appointment to meet with Department of Education Fulbright-Hays DDRA Program Director to discuss the award, eligibility, selection criteria, and the application process. To schedule an appointment, please contact Joanna Kukielka-Blaser.

Fulbright Reflections: First Person Accounts from Ohio State Scholars
1 - 2 p.m., 100 Enarson Classroom Building

Come meet recent Ohio State recipients of Fulbright Scholar grants. Panelists will share experiences, program impact, and offer tips for successful grant application preparation. Please register for the 4/17 session and for more information, please contact Joanna Kukielka-Blaser.

- Qinghua Sun, Professor and Assistant Dean for Global Public Health, College of Public Health Division of Environmental Health Sciences (Fulbright Specialist Award to Colombia)
- Leslie C. Moore, Associate Professor, Department of Teaching and Learning Department of Linguistics, (Fulbright Core Award to the Netherlands)
- Joanna Kukielka-Blaser, Ohio State University Campus Liaison for the Fulbright Scholar Program, Office of International Affairs (Fulbright International Education Administrator Award to Germany)

Fulbright Scholar Program: One-On-One advising for Faculty and Professional Staff
2 - 3 p.m., 100 Enarson Classroom Building

Faculty and professional staff are invited to meet with the Ohio State Fulbright Scholar Program Campus Liaison to explore FY 2018-2019 Fulbright Scholar grant opportunities and discuss application process. To schedule an appointment, please contact Joanna Kukielka-Blaser.

April 18, 2017

Fulbright-Hays Doctoral Dissertation Research Abroad Program: Funding Opportunities for Graduate Students
10 - 11 a.m., 100 Enarson Classroom Building

Graduate students are invited to learn about funding opportunities available through the Department of Education Fulbright-Hays DDRA
Program. Explore how Fulbright-Hays DDRA differs from the Department of State Fulbright Program. Ohio State Fulbright-Hays Program Director and recipients of Fulbright-Hays grants will discuss their experiences with the application process and share tips for successful grant application preparation. Please register for 4/18 session and for more information, please contact Joanna Kukielka-Blaser.

- Devin Grammon, PhD Candidate, Department of Spanish and Portuguese (Fulbright-Hays DDRA Grant to Peru)
- Keshia Lai, PhD Candidate, Department of History (Fulbright-Hays DDRA Grant to Singapore)
- Peter Tunkis, PhD Candidate, Department of Political Science (Fulbright-Hays DDRA Grant to Poland and Czech Republic)
- Joanna Kukielka-Blaser, Program Director, Fulbright-Hays DDRA, Office of International Affairs

Fulbright-Hays Doctoral Dissertation Research Abroad (DDRA) One-On-One Advising for Graduate Students
11 a.m. - 12 p.m., 100 Enarson Classroom Building
Graduate students can schedule an appointment to meet with Department of Education Fulbright-Hays DDRA Program Director to discuss the award, eligibility, selection criteria, and the application process. To schedule an appointment, please contact Joanna Kukielka-Blaser.

Fulbright Scholar Program - Perspective of the Reviewers
2 - 3 p.m., 100 Enarson Classroom Building
Meet faculty members who serve on the domestic peer review committees for the Fulbright Scholar Program. The Fulbright Scholar Program allows faculty to explore new and innovative award opportunities for the academic year 2018-2019 offered through the Council for International Exchange of Scholars. Please register for 4/18 session and for more information, please contact Joanna Kukielka-Blaser.

- Denise Bronson, Associate Professor, College of Social Work
- Magda El-Sherbini, Professor and Head of Collection Description and Access Department, The Ohio State University Libraries
- Thomas J Weeks, PhD, Retired. Former Director EH&S, Ashland Chemical
- Joanna Kukielka-Blaser, Ohio State University Campus Liaison for the Fulbright Scholar Program, Office of International Affairs

The ABC's of Fulbright - Fulbright Scholar Program Webinar
2 - 3 p.m., Webinar
ECA, FFSB, CIES, IIE- the list goes on! Join this webinar for an introduction to terms and definitions in the Fulbright U.S. Scholar Program. This webinar will be a great resource, in particular, for first time applicants.

April 19, 2017

Kuwait at the Intersection of Yesterday and Tomorrow: a Fulbright Scholar's Experience
12 – 1 p.m., 100 Enarson Classroom Building

Magda El-Sherbini, professor and head of collection description and access department, The Ohio State University Libraries, will give a presents on her recent experience in Kuwait where she spent 6 weeks as a Fulbright Scholar. El-Sherbini conducted research and offered training on various aspects of cataloging and librarianship at the American University of Kuwait Library. The presentation will cover her scholarly activity at AUK as well as her cultural experience that included a stint at the Kuwait International Book Fair and a camping experience in the Kuwaiti desert. Come and enjoy a taste of Kuwaiti dates, the indigenous fruit of Kuwait, a slide presentation and a small display of items from Kuwait. Register for the 4/19 lecture and contact Joanna Kukielka-Blaser for more information.

Fulbright and Administrators - International Education Administrator (IEA) Seminars
2 – 3 p.m., 100 Enarson Classroom Building

Learn about opportunities available to professional staff through the Fulbright International Education Administrator Seminars (IEA Seminar). The IEA seminars are designed for U.S. higher education administrators interested in spending an intensive two-week seminar in one of six countries: India, Japan, Korea, Germany, France, or Taiwan. Each seminar offers participants an in-depth look at the higher education system, culture and society of the host country. The seminars also provide an invigorating opportunity for networking with international and U.S. colleagues. Fulbright Scholar Campus Liaison and recipients of IEA grant will discuss their experiences with the application process and share tips for successful grant application preparation. Please register for 4/19 session and for more information, please contact Joanna Kukielka-Blaser.

- Amanda Yusko, Program Manager, Office of International Affairs International Student and Scholar Services (IEA Seminar Award to Korea)
- Joanna Kukielka-Blaser, Ohio State University Campus Liaison for the Fulbright Scholar Program, Office of International Affairs
Fulbright Webinar - The Fine Arts: Discipline-Specific and Interdisciplinary Award Opportunities
2 - 3 p.m., Webinar

An overview of global opportunities for scholars and professionals in the field of fine arts. Awards exist for teaching, conducting research, or a combination of both. The presentation will touch on both a general program overview, with tips on applying, as well as specific award highlights (Flex, Post-Doc, Professional awards) for the 2018-2019 Core U.S. Scholar competition. Register for The Fine Arts: Discipline-Specific and Interdisciplinary Award Opportunities webinar on 4/19.

U.S. Student Fulbright Information Session
4 p.m., 102 Kuhn Honors & Scholars House

The Undergraduate Fellowship Office hosts a Fulbright information session for students interested in learning more about the U.S. Student Program. At these sessions presenters will discuss the awards, eligibility and selection criteria, and the application process.

April 20, 2017

Fulbright Scholar Program: 2018-2019 Award Opportunities in Education
10 - 11 a.m., 110 Arps Hall

An overview of global opportunities for scholars and professionals in the field of education. Awards exist for teaching, conducting research, or a combination of both. The presentation will touch on both a general program overview as well as specific award highlights (Flex, Post-Doc, Professional awards) for the 2018-2019 Core U.S. Scholar competition. Panelists will share experiences, program impact, and offer tips for successful grant application preparation. Register for the 4/20 session and contact Joanna Kukielka-Blaser for more information.

- Ann O’Connell Professor, Department of Educational Studies; Director, Research Methodology Center, College of Education and Human Ecology (Fulbright Core Award to Ethiopia)
- Francis Troyan, Assistant Professor of World Language Education, Department of Teaching and Learning, College of Education and Human Ecology (Fulbright Core Award to France)
- Joanna Kukielka-Blaser, Ohio State University Campus Liaison for Fulbright Webinar - Fulbright Opportunities in India
2 – 3 p.m., Webinar

Join this interactive webinar session to examine the many Fulbright U.S. Scholar Program opportunities available to teach and/or conduct research in India. The presentation will also highlight examples of successful projects and will share application tips relevant to this program. Register for the Fullbright Opportunities in India webinar on 4/20.

Fulbright Visiting Scholar Yemataw Wondie: Teaching, Research, and Services at the University of Gondar, Ethiopia
3 – 4 p.m., 160 Enarson Classroom Building

Dr. Yemataw Wondie is a Fulbright research scholar at University of Montana for 2016/2017. He is an Associate Professor of Psychology and Editor-in-Chief of the Ethiopian Renaissance Journal of Social Sciences and the Humanities at the University of Gondar. Wondie served on different administrative capacities in his home institution including Director General for Teaching/Learning Core Process (equivalent to academic associate provost position), delegate Academic Vice President, and Director of Education Quality Assurance and Audit Directorate. He received his PhD from the University of Leipzig, Germany in Clinical Psychology (2009) and his MA and BA from Addis Ababa University in Special Needs Education (2003) and Psychology (1997), respectively. His research interest is on child and adolescent trauma, depression and quality of live related with patients with terminal illness. Register to attend 4/20 lecture and contact Laura Joseph for more information.

April 21, 2017

Fulbright Scholar Program – Perspective of the Reviewers
10 – 11 a.m., 160 Enarson Classroom Building

Meet faculty members who serve on the domestic peer review committees for the Fulbright Scholar Program. The Fulbright Scholar Program allows faculty to explore new and innovative award opportunities for the academic year 2018-2019 offered through the Council for International Exchange of Scholars. Please register for 4/21 session and for more information, please contact Joanna Kukielka-Blaser.

- Magda El-Sherbini, Professor and Head of Collection Description
2018-2019 Fulbright U.S. Scholar Program – What’s New?
1 - 2 p.m., The Women's Place, 201 Hale Hall

Learn about the opportunities available to faculty and professional staff for the academic year 2018-2019 offered through the Council for International Exchange of Scholars. The presentation will touch on both a general program overview as well as specific award highlights (Flex, Post-Doc, Professional awards). Presenters will share experiences, program impact, and offer tips for successful grant application preparation. Please register for 4/21 session and for more information, please contact Joanna Kukielka-Blaser.

- Denise Bronson, Associate Professor, College of Social Work
- Joanna Kukielka-Blaser, Ohio State University Campus Liaison for the Fulbright Scholar Program, Office of International Affairs

U.S. Student Fulbright Information Session
2 p.m., 102 Kuhn Honors & Scholars House

The Undergraduate Fellowship Office hosts a Fulbright information session for students interested in learning more about the U.S. Student Program. At these sessions presenters will discuss the awards, eligibility and selection criteria, and the application process.

Fulbright Reflections: First Person Accounts from Ohio State Scholars
2 - 3 p.m., 100 Enarson Classroom Building

Come meet recent Ohio State recipients of Fulbright Scholar grants. Panelists will share experiences, program impact, and offer tips for successful grant application preparation. Please register for 4/21 session and for more information, please contact Joanna Kukielka-Blaser.

- Jill Bystydzienski, Director, Center for Slavic and East European Studies, Professor, Department of Women's, Gender and Sexuality Studies (Fulbright Core Award to Poland)
- Joseph Campbell, Research Associate and Lecturer, School of Environment and Natural Resources (Fulbright Core Award to Tanzania)

- Mark Failla, Professor Emeritus, Human Nutrition, College of Education and Human Ecology, College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences (Fulbright Core Award to Thailand)
- Joanna Kukielka-Blaser, Ohio State University Campus Liaison for the Fulbright Scholar Program, Office of International Affairs (Fulbright International Education Administrator Award to Germany)