

Phyllis Krumm Memorial International Scholarship

Up to three awards will be given to deserving graduate students for research or study in a European country or in China. Applicants must be enrolled as a graduate student at Ohio State in an academic program of study in any field. Students must demonstrate excellence in scholarship and an appropriate background for research or study in Europe or China (including the mainland, Hong Kong, Macao, and/or Taiwan). They must be of good character and intend to conduct research or study requiring independent international travel (i.e., unassociated with an organized study abroad group). Preference is given to U.S. citizens, pursuing a career in diplomatic or other governmental international service.

Acknowledgements

For countries that are designated high risk, undergraduate students cannot use scholarship awards for study abroad programs and/or individual international projects outside of venues approved by Ohio State. Approved programs are communicated on the Office of International Affairs website via the Global Education program search engine:

<https://globaleducation.osu.edu/index.cfm?FuseAction=Programs.SimpleSearch&>

Graduate and professional students may petition the International Travel Policy Committee for approval a minimum of three months prior to proposed travel. Ohio State utilizes Crisis24 Country Risk Ratings criteria (updated monthly) and U.S. Department of State Travel Advisories to inform its preliminary review of proposed travel destinations.

Countries with an Overall Risk Rating meeting or exceeding 3.5 are elevated for additional review by the International Travel Policy Committee. For further information on the policy and/or the petition process, please contact Office of Risk Management and Insurance at IRM@osu.edu or OIA-grants@osu.edu.

Ohio State students traveling to international locations for the purpose of study abroad, undergraduate or graduate/dissertation research, internships or independent study are required to enroll in the university's supplemental international insurance which is provided through Geo Blue. The insurance includes coverage for medical, evacuation, repatriation, emergency assistance, and political security and natural disaster. Students participating in study abroad programming coordinated through the Office of International Affairs are automatically enrolled in the supplemental international insurance. Students who are traveling abroad independently may enroll on-line for the supplemental insurance.

I acknowledge I have read and understand the receipt of any grant or scholarship funds is contingent upon enrollment in the University's supplemental travel insurance during the time that I will be abroad.

Please check this box if you agree to allow The Ohio State University to publish your name in an announcement in the event you receive this scholarship.
