ACHIEVING SUCCESS

Pat West
Associate Dean of Undergraduate Programs
Fisher College of Business getting started
“Happiness lies in the joy of achievement and the thrill of creative effort.”

- Franklin D. Roosevelt
Tips:
1. Know what personal success looks like
2. Understand what others expect of you
3. Strive to exceed those expectations
4. Utilize the resources available to you
Know what personal success looks like

- Have a plan for the future
- Visualize your goals
- Understand your limits
- Be open to change
Understand what others expect of you

• Study each course syllabus thoroughly
• Put assignments/exams on your calendar
• Be there on-time and stay focused
• American education is highly interactive and collaborative
• Your work must be your own
• Ask questions if you don’t understand
Strive to exceed expectations

- Brain power requires good physical health
- Always come prepared to contribute
- Practice your English everyday
- Building a strong reputation is key to your future success
- Learn the art of leadership
Utilize the vast resources OSU offers

• Faculty | Advisors | Career Coaches | etc.
• Learn to use the library
• Immerse yourself in a new culture
• Get involved with a student organization
• Build life-long friendships
• Become part of the OSU community