Housing and Dining

Matt Couch
Living in the Residence Halls

• The availability of spaces is quite limited, especially single rooms
• Be aware that most rooms for new students house more than two people
• Bedroom and bathroom arrangements vary by building
• The cost of housing varies by the type of room and meal plan chosen
• Housing assignments will be sent to your OSU e-mail in July
Living in the Residence Halls

- What to expect from your roommate(s)
- The role of the Resident Advisor (RA) and Hall Director
- Activities in the residence halls
- Video tour
Off-Campus Housing

• If you are interested in living off-campus, we recommend that you start your search with Neighborhood Services and Collaboration at offcampus.osu.edu

• Use their online housing search with information on accommodations within both walking distance and driving distance to The Ohio State University campus

• They also provide a roommate search database with other students looking for people to share space and living expenses
Dining on Campus

- More than 25 locations on campus
- Dining plans: unlimited vs. semester and weekly block plans
- If you live in a residence hall, you must purchase a dining plan
  - Details and pricing available at food.osu.edu
- How is the food?