How to Fill Out a Check

Address: Your U.S. address should be pre-printed on your checks along with the name of the bank or financial institution.

Date: Record the date that you write the check. Do not "future-date" or "post-date" your check.

Pay to the Order of: The Ohio State University

Amount: Starting at the far left of the box, write the amount due in figures.

Example: $5,530.00

Dollars line: Starting at the far left, write the exact same dollar amount in words as written in the Amount box.

Example: Five hundred and fifty-three dollars.

Memo: Write your full name and OSU ID number.

Signature line: Sign your name as it is printed on your checks. Do not sign a check until it is ready to be used. When you sign a check, you become responsible for paying the amount indicated on the check.

In-State Residency & Immigration Status

Eligibility for the in-state tuition subsidy benefit and immigration status is dependent upon several factors. A student must meet the following criteria in addition to the other residency requirements. Listed on the University Registrar's website. Please refer to the explanation below to determine if your immigration status entitles you to apply for in-state residency.

A Financially Independent Student:

If a person is financially independent, they must be a U.S. citizen, Permanent Resident Alien, Political Asylee, Political Refugee, or hold an A, E, G, H, I, L, O, P, R, TC, TD, or TN visa to be eligible for review as an in-state resident for tuition purposes.

If a student holds a B, F, J, M, or U visa and is financially independent, then they are not eligible to establish Ohio residency.

Students that are financially independent and their immigration status is pending (i.e.: for green card), are not eligible for in-state residency unless their most recent immigration status prior to entering pending status, was an eligible status to receive the in-state tuition subsidy benefit. (i.e.: prior status was this visa type: A, E, G, H, I, L, O, P, R, TC, TD, or TN visa)

A Financially Dependent Student:

If a student is financially dependent upon a spouse or parent, the person they are dependent upon must also be a U.S. citizen, Permanent Resident Alien, Political Asylee, or Political Refugee, or hold an A, E, G, H, I, L, O, P, R, TC, TD, or TN visa in order for the student to qualify to be reviewed for in-state residency.

(Note: Financial dependence upon a parent is defined as having been claimed on the parent's federal income tax return in the most recent tax year. Financial dependence upon a spouse is proven with a marriage certificate.)

A student that holds a B, F, J, M, or U visa can qualify for in-state residency only if they are financially dependent upon a spouse or parent that is a bona fide Ohio resident. A bona fide Ohio resident is defined as a person who meets the criteria established in the Ohio Board of Regents Guidelines and is also a U.S. citizen, Permanent Resident Alien, Political Asylee, or Political Refugee, or hold an A, E, G, H, I, L, O, P, R, TC, TD, or TN visa.

If a student is dependent upon a spouse or parent who holds a B, F, J, or M visa, then they are not eligible to establish in-state residency.

Special Note (1): If a student is a dependent of a bona fide Ohio resident and the student's current visa type is B, F, J, M, or U they must also have applied to adjust their status to permanent resident alien in order to qualify for the in-state tuition subsidy benefit. Or they must have applied to adjust their status to match that of the person they are dependent on. (For example: a student is in the U.S. on an F-1 visa and marries an Ohio resident who is in the U.S. on an H1B visa, then the student must be in the process of adjusting to an H4 status.) Please contact the Registrar's Office if you have any questions or would like to discuss any extenuating circumstances.

Special Note (2): If a student's immigration status changes after being classified as a resident, it may affect their ability to remain classified as a resident. For example, if a student is financially independent and on an H1B visa and adjusts their status to F-1, then they would no longer be eligible for in-state residency. Contact the Student Service Center for clarification or if you have any additional questions.
