Paying Tuition and Fees

Maria Bibler
Student Information

- Statement of Account
- Once a student registers for classes
- Shows tuition and fees as well as payment due date
  - Must pay all tuition and fees for the term
  - Failure to complete results in Registration Lock Hold
- Accessible through Student Center (buckeyelink.osu.edu)
  - Use Ohio State user name and password
- Financial Responsibility Statement
Recommended Ways to Pay Tuition and Fees

• Set up a local bank account and wire money from a different bank
• How do I pay?
  – Pay in-person at the drop box in Student Academic Services Building
  – Checks and money orders
  – Payable to The Ohio State University
  – Must include your OSU ID number
  – Payments via airmail must be postmarked by due date
Recommended Ways to Pay Tuition and Fees

• Set up a local bank account and wire money from a different bank
• How do I pay?
  – ePayment online
    ☐ Through the Student Center
    ☐ Via Western Union Business Solutions
  – Currency of your choice
  – See Program Booklet for details
Recommended Ways to Pay Tuition and Fees

• How do I pay?
  – Online payments from a personal checking or personal savings account (American bank accounts only)
  – Online payments from a valid credit card (Visa, MasterCard, Discover and American Express)
  – Credit card companies charge a 2.75% non-refundable fee per transaction
Paying Tuition and Fees

Dates and Deadlines for Payment

• Fees are due on or before seven days prior to the beginning of classes
• For Autumn Semester 2014, the due date for tuition and fees will be August 20, 2014
• Pay on time: the late fees are significant
  – If fees are not paid by the fee payment deadline, you will be charged a $200 late fee
  – If fees are not paid by the second Friday of the term, the late fee becomes $300 and you may be dropped from classes for non-payment
An Overview

Pre-Departure Orientation

undergrad.osu.edu