A Story of Volunteerism:
Americans in Korea, Koreans in the World

IKS LECTURE SERIES

Great Hall Meeting Room
The Ohio Union
Opening Reception
4:00 - 6:00 p.m.

Thursday, May 3

“A Story of Volunteerism” celebrates the experiences of the U.S. Peace Corps in Korea and the Korean International Cooperation Agency (KOICA), through a photo exhibition that features 30 photographs depicting the Peace Corps volunteer experience in the Republic of Korea and the work of the volunteers from the Korea International Cooperation Agency. The reception will feature a keynote address by Mr. Jon Keeton, former Director of Peace Corps Korea and Regional Director for Peace Corps in North Africa, Near East, Asia and the Pacific. Please come and celebrate with us on Thursday, May 3, 2012 from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. in the Great Hall Meeting on the first floor of the Ohio Union on The Ohio State University campus. Korean refreshments will be served at the conclusion.

This public program is being organized by the Institute for Korean Studies at The Ohio State University, and the Friends of Korea, an association of returned Peace Corps volunteers from Korea.

Co-sponsored by:
The Ohio State University sponsors: Korean Culture Club (KCC), Korean Student Association (KSA), Omega Tau Zeta Sorority (OTZ), Department of East Asian Languages and Literature, Dept of History, Korean International Student Organization (KISO), The Friends of Korea, the Multicultural Center, Ohio Union, University College of Arts & Sciences, and the Hanguk Geeks

Ohio University Sponsors: Department of Linguistics, Program of Intensive English and the English Language Improvement Program

This event is sponsored in part by a U.S. Department of Education Title VI Grant.